

The Honourable Gerald W. Kisoun
Commissioner of the Northwest Territories

I am deeply saddened by the news of the school shooting in Tumbler Ridge, BC. I send my sincere condolences to the families and friends of the victims, the community of Tumbler Ridge, and all of British Columbia. The impacts of such senseless tragedies like this are far reaching and my thoughts are with all who have been affected.

I also extend my sincere gratitude and commendation to the first responders for their courage in the face of such a tragedy.

To those families who have lost loved ones, the survivors, and all residents of Tumbler Ridge, please know that you are in my prayers.

Commissioner Kisoun
